

Parker & Landa Properties Context Map

Please note: This property is not yet open to the public. Prior to beginning development or improvements on this parkland, the first step is to complete a master plan by following the City's established master plan process. The master planning process is anticipated to begin in 2025 and you will be invited to participate!