Updates on heavy rains, where to see salmon, scam alerts, food and toy drives, and much more!

Community Bulletins

This week from the Snoqualmie Tribe Ancestral Lands Movement:

We want to thank all of our supporters for your commitment, curiosity, interest, and care that has been shared since the Ancestral Lands Movement was first launched this summer. There is so much shared interest and love to treat Snoqualmie ancestral lands with the care they deserve, from the biggest old growth tree, to the smallest Kokanee fry.

Please join us for the Sammamish ‘Community Ride’ and ‘Community Van’ Explained on Wednesdays, Nov 17, 11 AM with our city Transportation Planner Doug McIntyre and Community Coordinator Gen Rubinelli. You will learn much more:

Community Ride is a dial-a-ride, on-demand shuttle that can be requested via phone number or by an app, operated by a paid driver of King County Metro, and can take you to destinations within a set boundary in Sammamish. (Standard METRO fares; weekdays 7am-6pm, Saturday 9am-6pm.)

Community Van is a flexible rideshare option that provides community members with a new way to use public transportation by offering trips for neighbors to local destinations in and outside Sammamish within a 2-hour drive, and offers trips throughout the day, evening, and weekend. The Vans are driven by volunteer drivers who are screened and approved through King County METRO’s Commuter Van program. Riders pay a standard METRO fare for a round trip. Please contact SammamishSeniors@gmail.com for the zoom link. (All ages welcome!)

Help keep the Thanksgiving tradition alive while benefitting your local food bank.

The Issaquah Turkey Trot has become a favorite annual Thanksgiving tradition. The 2021 Issaquah Turkey Trot will look much like it did in 2020, allowing people to participate without the concerns of large crowds.

Starting at 9:00 a.m. on the morning of Thanksgiving, the Issaquah Turkey Trot will continue throughout the entire Thanksgiving weekend until 4:00 p.m. Sunday, November 22 weekend until 4:00 p.m., Sunday, November 28, and families can pick when they want to participate. In addition to picking the day and time they participate; trotters can choose from six different routes throughout Issaquah and Sammamish to make social-distancing easier than ever.

★ REGISTER ★ Issaquah Turkey Trot registration is open until the last day of the event, Sunday November 28. To learn more and register, please click on the image!

The atmospheric river will continue to bring heavy rains to the region increasing our risk of localized flooding and landslides. Local rivers, including the Snoqualmie have already reached a Level 3 – Moderate flood stage and will continue to see rising waters through the weekend.

There are currently no flooding issues in Sammamish, but it's important to prepare for possible road closures due to flooding, localized landslides, and lakefront flooding.

What to Know About Landslides With the potential of landslides due to the rain-saturated ground, it's important to know how to prepare for landslides. Click here for helpful information on landslide preparedness.

November is Native

November is Native American Heritage Month. The month is a time to celebrate rich and diverse cultures, traditions, and histories and to acknowledge the important contributions of Native people. Heritage Month is also an opportune time to educate the general public about tribes, to raise general awareness about the unique challenges Native people have faced both historically and in the present, and the ways in which tribal citizens have worked to conquer these challenges.

Keep reading on the City's Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion page for information on the Snoqualmie Tribe Ancestral Lands Movement, a list of events, and a list of literature from Native American authors.

At the November 1 City Council Meeting, longtime Sammamish resident Mary Pigott was presented with the Distinguished Resident Award for her many years of service and generous donation of 51 acres of land to the City that makes up Big Rock Park North, Central, and future South.

★SHARE YOUR APPRECIATION★

Sammamish residents are invited to share their appreciation for this generous gift of land by Mary Pigott. Read the Distinguished Resident Award, and add a Kudo to the Kudoboard for Mary Pigott! Please click below and then you can "+Add to Board".

Leave a message of appreciation for Mary Pigott!

Special thanks to the many community volunteers, members of the Snoqualmie Tribe, and Trout Unlimited for helping to bring the kokanee back to Zackuse Creek. The Zackuse Creek Fish Passage and Stream Restoration Project worked to remedy blockages with culverts leading from the creek to Lake Sammamish.

We are also happy to celebrate the October completion of the Ebright Creek Fish Passage Project to restore the crossing at Ebright Creek.

Sammamish Police Department (SPD) wants the community to be aware of a scam that is currently active in our community. A resident recently lost a significant amount of money to a scammer using the real name of an SPD officer. Sometimes scams such as these will include spoofing a legitimate police agency phone number and using a real name in an attempt to gain the trust of the victim.

Keep reading for tips to avoid becoming a victim of a scam by clicking on the image!

● We are now accepting non-perishable food donations for the Issaquah Food and Clothing Bank ●

Drop off your donations at the box outside of Sammamish City Hall or come help us fill the patrol car with food donations at City Hall on November 13 from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Please consider giving a donation to this Thanksgiving Food Drive and help our neighbors during the holiday season. For a helpful guide as you shop for the Thanksgiving Food Drive, please click on the image!

Popcorn with Planning is back, and excited to feature the Community Visioning Project! This virtual session will be an informal opportunity to learn more about the project and share your thoughts on what Sammamish should look like in the future.

So grab your lunch and comfortable place to sit & please join us on Tuesday, November 16 at 12:30pm!

Reserve your spot here!

The Sammamish Police Department is partnering once again with Toys for Tots this holiday season. Bring in any new, unwrapped toys to the job box located in front of Sammamish City Hall between November 15 - December 10!

COMMUNITY VAN

GET WHERE YOU NEED TO GO

- Get where you need to go for the cost of a metro fare
- Volunteers never have to pay for gas or tolls
- Community Van is taking safety precautions to limit the spread of COVID
- Trips can be up to two hours away

King County METRO

Community Van is a flexible rideshare option that provides Sammamish residents with a new way to use public transportation by offering trips to local destinations in and outside Sammamish (up to 2 hours away). Community Van accommodates trips throughout the day, evening, and weekends. Trips can be a whatever you need, such as going to a play or concert with friends or going to the grocery store every week with a group. Community Vans are driven by volunteer drivers who are screened and approved through King County Metro's Commuter Van program. Riders pay a standard metro fare for a round trip while the volunteer driver can ride for free.

Currently, we are seeking volunteer drivers to fulfill the volume of ride requests coming in from the community! Support your neighbors, your community and help the environment by becoming a Community Van volunteer driver. You can choose which trips you drive and the frequency. If you are interested in volunteering, please email communityvan@sammamish.us or call (425) 295-0646.

Kids would make a turkey and then on each feather would write something they are thankful for. Kits will be available for pick up on Monday, November 22 starting at 9am at City Hall under the portico in a labeled bin until all kits are gone. Quantities are limited.

There will be 250 kits available with instructions included. Kits will be picked up on a first-come first-serve basis on November 22; kits cannot be reserved. Please only one kit per child when you pick up.

The Arts Commission would love to get a lot of engagement! Please upload photos of your finished products to the comments section under Thankful Turkey Craft - Facebook Event page ("you can go there by clicking on the image!")

van [<https://connect.sammamish.us/mobility-hub>]

Community Van is a flexible rideshare option that provides Sammamish residents with a new way to use public transportation by offering trips to local destinations in and outside Sammamish (up to 2 hours away). Community Van accommodates trips throughout the day, evening, and weekends. Trips can be a whatever you need, such as going to a play or concert with friends or going to the grocery store every week with a group. Community Vans are driven by volunteer drivers who are screened and approved through King County Metro's Commuter Van program. Riders pay a standard metro fare for a round trip while the volunteer driver can ride for free.

*Currently, we are seeking volunteer drivers to fulfill the volume of ride requests coming in from the community! *Support your neighbors, your community and help the environment by becoming a Community Van volunteer driver. You can choose which trips you drive and the frequency. If you are interested in volunteering, please email communityvan@sammamish.us or call (425) 295-0646.
